

International tax accountants providing nonresident aliens and foreign corporations with United States income tax planning and tax preparation, including US real estate sales by nonresident aliens and foreign corporations.

Also providing US citizens, US residents and green card holders with cross border tax consultation and advice and US crossborder income tax preparation including foreign tax credit planning and tax treaty explanations.

Preparation of US estate tax returns, and US estate tax planning also included.

The Firm also provides assistance to nonresident aliens and foreign corporations structuring US investments and assistance to US investors structuring foreign investments.

US and Canadian tax planning associated with US and Canadian immigration and emigration is also offered.